

PUBLIC LEDGER

FOURTH YEAR.

MAYSVILLE, KY., FRIDAY, JUNE 28, 1895.

ONE CENT.

LARGEST IN THE CITY.

Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. No publisher can afford to give advertising "notices" for less than a certain value. The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. No publisher can afford to give advertising "notices" for less than a certain value.

The Continued Calls

upon THE LEDGER for free notices have become so burdensome that we are forced to publish the following terms:

For Notices of Suppers.

excursions, fairs, or other public entertainments where a fee is charged, and for obituary notices, resolutions of respect, etc., THE LEDGER will charge FIVE CENTS A LINE, and hereafter this will be the invariable rule. This, however.

Does Not Include

notices of Lodge meetings or Church services, which must not exceed ten lines.

Avoidance of Disputes.

Misunderstandings are unpleasant. The rate for Business Local in THE LEDGER is 10 cents a line for the first insertion and 5 cents a line for subsequent insertions. A customer orders a five-line local inserted in the paper. "I'll tell you when to take it out," he says to the bookkeeper. But he forgets all about it. The notice runs for two months—32 times—the bill is $32. When he finds it out there is a "kick" and a controversy, followed probably by an angry feeling. Now, to obviate this trouble, no "till told" notices will be accepted hereafter. Let's have a definite agreement at the outset and the termination will be pleasant all around.

All matter for publication must be handed in before 9 o'clock in the morning of each day.

If you have friends visiting you, or if you are visiting them, please drop us a note in this effect.

Mrs. David Dye has returned home after a visit to her parents at Carlisle.

Miss Anna Belle Wheeler of Tiffin, O., is visiting her mother, Mrs. A. Wheeler.

Mrs. Lucia Miner and daughter Miss Etta have returned from Warren, Va.

Mr. C. F. Walther is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Little Linn, at Charleston, W. Va.

Mrs. E. K. Owens of Dover was visiting relatives in this city the fore part of the week.

Miss Maud Hill, daughter of Mr. Ed. Hill, left yesterday for a visit at Ewing Station.

Mrs. J. Hawthorne Hill of New York City is visiting Miss Sophia Albert of Market street.

Mrs. C. B. Clift of Covington is visiting friends and relatives in this city for a few days.

Miss Sallie Ball, after a pleasant visit to relatives at Carr, Lewis county, has returned home.

Mrs. J. M. Hunter of Louisville is visiting her mother, Mrs. Julia Morgan of West Second street.

Misses Bessie and Lelah Martin of Forest avenue have been visiting Miss Lena Jacobs at Dover this week.

Miss Jennie Mackenzie and Miss Hettie McClain of Lebanon, Tenn., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. George W. Sulser.

Misses Margaret and Anna Heiser, after a brief sojourn at Mineral Springs, Ind., returned home last night.

Chief Train Dispatcher Anderson of the K. C. Division of the L. and N., with headquarters at Paris, was in the city yesterday.

Carlisle Mercury.—"Earl Worick and wife of Maysville left here Saturday to visit in Lawrenceburg and Lexington a few days."

Miss Rena Mae Coryell, after a most pleasant visit of several weeks with Mrs. C. P. Frank of Forest avenue, has returned to her home in the Eastern part of this county.

Dennis Holmes of this city has had his pension cut in two.

The County Court has granted liquor license to W. A. Schatzmann & Co.

Sylvester Smith of Head of Grass, Lewis county, has been granted a pension.

The Aberdeen Journal says the blackberry crop in that neighborhood promises to be a large one.

Charles H. Simpson and Miss Gertrude Moore, both of Greenup, were married by Rev. John Cheap.

Many a man, who has been sent to an early and even suicidal grave by the tortures of dyspepsia, would be alive and well to-day, had he tested the virtues of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This is no temporary appetizer, but a radical, scientific remedy. It makes life worth living.

DRESS! DRESS! DRESS!

Dress! dress! dress! Idol and fetish supreme Of the female part of the human race. Woman's nocturnal dream, Woman's diurnal theme, That can cause her eyes to beam With an utterly joyous gleam.

As, Despairing, Eulogizing, Criticizing, Analyzing, She harps with a feverish, eager stress On dress! dress! dress!

Dress! dress! dress! Bane of the poor male worm, Who in ravings about it must acquiesce For a seemingly endless term, While the ladies compel the germ Of madness to start and squirm In a brain that was shrewd and firm.

As, Execrating, Deeply bating, Objurating, Conminating, He wishes the world did no course possess Like dress! dress! dress! —London Fun.

MAYSVILLE WEATHER.

What We May Expect For the Next Twenty-four Hours.

THE LEDGER'S WEATHER SIGNALS.

White streamer—FAIR.

Blue—RAIN or SNOW.

With Black ABOVE—"I WILL WARMER GROW."

If Black's BENEATH—"COLDER" I WILL BE.

Unless Black's shown—no chance we'll see.

The above forecasts are made for a period of thirty-six hours, ending at 9 o'clock to-morrow evening.

We respectfully invite the comparison of THE LEDGER with any other daily newspaper in all Northeastern Kentucky. If any one can find a daily paper printed in the Ninth Congressional District that has

A Larger Circulation, or More Original Reading Matter, we will take pleasure in presenting him with a year's subscription to THE LEDGER. And this paper is furnished at same price as inferior ones.

Fire Insurance—Duley & Baldwin.

Sterling Silver Spoons at McCarthy's.

Cole's Water Filter $2. Fitzgerald's the Plumber.

The smallpox patient at Tuckahoe is getting along nicely.

Manchester is talking of organizing a Sons of Veterans' Camp.

"Stick 'Em" Fly Paper. Catches flies. Try it. For sale at Chenoweth's Drugstore.

For the choicest things in summer Millinery go to Mrs. L. V. Davis, Zweigart's Block.

Thomas L. Rount of this city was one of the graduates from Berea College a few days ago.

The Woman's Prayer Service will be held in the First Presbyterian Church on Friday afternoon, June 28th, at 4 o'clock.

Oscar Sowers, the young man from Ripley who was so badly injured by a C. and O. train recently, is slowly recovering.

In cases where dandruff, scalp diseases, falling and grayness of the hair appear, do not neglect them, but apply a proper remedy and tonic like Hall's Hair Renewer.

It is estimated that the cost of the railroad from Brookville to Wellsburg will amount to $6,000 per mile to put it in operation.

Traxel & Smith are selling half-inch hose, that they guarantee for two years, at 18 cents per foot. No. 129 West Second street.

James F. Ewing, a wealthy ex-merchant at Bowling Green, talked too much and got himself sued for $5,000 for slander. He is accused of having said all Irish will steal.

About sixty acres of tomatoes were contracted by the Dover Canning Co. this year, but on account of the scarcity of plants only about half that many acres have been set out, but should it prove reasonable they will have as large an output as they had last year.

The Ripley Bee says that Samuel Yeaton will soon have a deed from the Government for what is known as Charleston Bar, which is located about 2 1/2 miles above Ripley. Mr. Yeaton was a soldier during the late war, and as such is entitled to a quarter section of land. He wrote to the authorities at Washington, asking them to allow him this bar as his claim. They informed him that they would and he has plowed it up and planted it in corn and expects to reap a rich harvest.

[Are you sure of this? If you will investigate, you will probably find out that Kentucky owns this bar.—ED. LEDGER.]

James Davis of Fleming shipped a carload of stock Saturday to New Mexico. It consisted of three jacks, three bulls, three cows and calves and sixteen cows. The cattle were Jerseys and shorthorns, and the jacks all high bred.

LET EVERYBODY GO OUT.

Today Witnesses the Baseball Event of the Season.

This afternoon our boys tackle the great Cincinnati Reds.

The game has been well advertised, and promises to be patronized largely.

The Reds will be made up of the regular team, and the Locals will be at their best.

Big Bill Phillips will pitch for the Reds, while Morgan Murphy, the best catcher that ever looked through a mask, will be behind the bat.

If Laytham is in a good humor this afternoon he will create no end of merriment for the crowd by his witty sayings and comical actions.

Vaughn will be on first, Smith at short, McPhee at second, with Miller, Hoy and Hogreiver in the outfield.

You can't afford to miss it. The game will be called at 3 o'clock, and the admission is gents 50 cents, ladies 25 cents.

A "fan" has placed $10 in the hands of a responsible gentleman, which he offers to the member of the Local team making the most safe hits in the game this afternoon.

HARMONY SOME MORE!

MORE PICKUPS FOR OUR NEIGHBOR FOLKS.

It Was a Howlingly Harmonious Mob—What Will the Harvest Be?—Keep Your Ears Open.

Some of the Mason county contingent have returned from Louisville, bringing voices keyed up to the foghorn pitch and wearing blue smiles that reach behind the ears.

All agree that the Convention was Democratic to the core—from the act of the Honorable and able Chairman Al Berry drinking a glass of whisky while presiding on the stage, to the visit of a certain chap who proposed to buy the Mason delegation for his man.

But this was all in the interest of harmony.

When it came to the nomination for State Treasurer, John C. Herndon, formerly of this county, got 172 votes on the first ballot but only 43 on the second, and R. C. Ford of Clay county was chosen.

In the interest of harmony there was no opposition to L. C. Norman for Auditor.

G. B. Swango of Wolfe county was nominated for Register, A. P. McCoy of Greenup getting only 100 votes.

In the interest of more harmony Hon. W. J. Hendrick of Fleming was renominated for Attorney General without opposition.

The Convention now tapped a fresh jug of harmony, and Mr. C. Bugjuice Taylor of this city rode right close up to H. S. Hale for Secretary of State. It is not morally certain which has been nominated; but if Mr. Taylor doesn't "git thar" he ain't the man we think he is.

Hanson Kennedy of Nicholas is the new member of the State Central Committee from this District.

And James N. Kehoe of this city is the new member of the State Executive Committee for this District.

And two years hence Hon. Charles B. Poyntz will have a whole hive of Congressional bees in his spring bonnet.

Put that down in your little book, and paste this right under it:

LEXINGTON, Ky., June 27th.

The A. P. A.'s here are up in arms and declare they will not support the Democratic ticket. They say the Democrats at Convention at Louisville went out of the way to criticize their organization, and that the 1,000 members of the Association here and 30,000 in the state will vote the Republican ticket.

Wheat in the last ten days has declined about 15 cents on the bushel, but who has heard of any decline in the price of flour?

Judge W. P. Ross of Carlisle has a heifer about a year old that has been giving about two gallons of milk per day.

The Methodist Church Trustees of Millersburg have accepted a plan for a $10,000 Church, and will commence building this summer.

Dr. G. M. Williams of this city read an interesting paper before the State Dental Association at Lexington on "Our Mistake in Mechanical Dentistry."

Mrs. Kate Wright, aged 74 years, whose home was near Owingsville, died from lockjaw, supposed to have been the result of having stuck a rusty nail in one of her feet a short time since.

The Ashland News says: "Huntington will revive football under the coaching of Truehart Taylor. They ought to put up a good article up that way, as they are the greatest kickers on earth."

William Overton, one of the murderers of peddler Loeb and wife in Harlan county, who was shot while trying to escape from the jailer's posse, has died of his wound. The two others implicated have been captured and are in jail.

The Rev. W. E. Broadhurst, Pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at Arkansas City, Kans., has resigned his Pastorate, confessing that after resisting temptation for twenty-one years he has fallen. There is a woman involved.

Miss Annie Londonderry of Boston, who is riding around the world on a bicycle, to decide a wager of $30,000 to $10,000, arrived at El Paso, Texas, Wednesday. She has been on her journey a few days over a year, and in that time has declined over 150 offers of marriage.

The Case family of this county are yet counting on getting a slice of that fortune at Cleveland, O. They have representatives there now who are looking out for their interests in the case. Should their expectations be realized it will put the whole connection in what we may term a nice case.

PIPES ON A BUST.

An Accident That Might Have Been Much Worse.

Yesterday there was a collapse at the Ice Factory and Cold Storage plant of Ackers & Frederick on the Fleming pike.

The pipes used in condensing water burst, and as a result there will be considerable loss, probably as much as $300.

Besides there will be a delay of several days.

However, the accident will in no wise interfere with the prompt delivery of ice to customers, as the firm had a good stock on hand.

DRAWN BY A FISH.

Greenup Boys Have a Narrow Escape, and One Is Badly Hurt.

While James and Samuel Hare, sons of Basil Hare, a prominent farmer in the Greenup neighborhood, were fishing in Schultze creek, Samuel, the younger, fell asleep, and while in this condition a large fish caught hold of his hook, pulling him into the creek.

The older brother ran to his assistance and jumped into the stream, but both of the boys were unable to land the fish and were carried over the falls in the creek, almost a quarter of a mile below where they were fishing.

The younger boy was badly bruised and will not likely recover.

A man working in a field close by heard the screams of the boys as they went over the falls, and had he not rescued them they would both have been drowned.

TACKETT ATTEMPTS ESCAPE.

And He Has Also Made a Confession, So It Is Said.

James Tackett, under arrest at Vanceburg for the murder of the Browns, attempted to escape from Jail Monday with two Negroes, arrested a few months ago for the murder of a Hudson deckhand, and a man named Roberts, in for burglary.

Roberts led off by knocking down a son of the Jailor as he passed through the prison.

All four of the men would have escaped but for a prisoner to be released that day who gave the alarm and prevented their getting outside the building.

Tackett, it is stated, confessed to having been at the mouth of the creek on the day of the crime.

It will be remembered that there was much confusion as to his real whereabouts that day, witnesses wholly disinterested having sworn that he was and was not at Kinnickonick.

This is removed effectually by Tackett's statement, but what effect it will later have on his case remains to be seen.

There is no new evidence in the case.

Mr. S. M. Worthington has sold out his business at Bowling Green and will return with his family to his former home in this county.

Dan Rice, the veteran showman who married the widow of Robert Greathouse of Texas, a former citizen of this county, by whom he came into control of a large plantation, directs the management of his place from his home in New York. Dan is well known all over Texas.

The management of the coming running races—July 4th, 5th and 6th—will not ask our merchants for a dollar in the way of donations. All they do request, and that most respectfully, is that all the stores be closed at noon on the Fourth, in order that everybody can attend the sport.

Fredericksburg, Va., being one of the places spoken of as the place for the meeting of the next General Assembly at the recent session of that body at Dallas, the spokesman for that town on being interrupted with the remark that his town could not entertain so large a body, called attention to the fact that upon one occasion his town had entertained General Burnside and 200,000 Northern visitors and sent them away "gravely impressed."

Sad seems to be the condition of the "Wets" and "Drys" in poor old Hartford, the county seat of a Prohibition county. An election was held in January, in which the "Drys" won, and was set aside by the Circuit Court and then went to the Court of Appeals, where it now is, and another election was had June 17th, in which the "Wets" won. Now the "Drys" will contest the election, claiming that ten illegal votes were cast in the last election which might very materially change the vote, and other frauds and illegal practices will be charged in the petition.

For Sale!

Knights of Pythias.

A full attendance of members of Lime stone Lodge No. 36, K. of P., is requested for this evening, as business of the utmost importance will be presented.

L. O. O. F. Election.

Ringgold Lodge has chosen the following officers for the next six months:

N. G.—J. B. Newton.
V. G.—Robert Dawson.
Secretary—A. N. Huff.
Treasurer—J. P. Barbour.
Finance Committee—W. T. Betty, W. W. Willocks, T. H. N. Smith.

Didn't Invest.

It is a nice thing to be told that a fortune is awaiting a family when one happens to be a member of the same. A correspondent of THE LEDGER was in this case many years ago, but has never yet realized on it.

Sir Francis Drake was the hero of the story, and the Drake family of this county were to be the beneficiaries.

Twenty millions sterling were said to be locked up in the rusty vaults of the Bank of England, waiting to be taken possession of by this hungry family of Drakes.

The lawyers tried hard to get up such an excitement as would cause the claimants to invest in the case, but the deal fell still born.

Richmond Convention.

The Republican Convention assembled and organized in Louisville June 5th, 1895, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Railroad Commissioner of the Third District of Kentucky, having adjourned on the 6th inst. to meet in Richmond, Ky., July 10th, 1895, without naming the hour for reassembling. Therefore, in order to give all the delegates an opportunity to reach Richmond by train on that day, and trusting that the same will meet with general approval, announce that the Convention will be called to order for the purpose of completing its work at the hour of 9 o'clock p. m., July 10th, 1895, at such place as may be chosen by the local committee, of which I am not at present advised.

V. BORRING, Chairman Convention.

EXTENDED FREIGHT SERVICE.

The C. and O. Soon to Have Through Trains to Louisville.

Ashland News.

The C. and O. Road is gradually reaching out and perfecting its system, and the next move of importance will be the extension of their freight service direct into Louisville. Trains will go on through to that city manned with C. and O. crews, just the same as do the passenger trains. The run will be made over the building of a new shortcut line over the lower end of the route, removing a fifteen mile run.

With the addition of this new service there will be a call for additional crews and if the runs are laid out as is the general opinion now that they will be, it will give local men better opportunities than have ever heretofore been enjoyed. The local train men are very well pleased with the new arrangement, and all along the line the move is generally regarded as a wise one. If it doesn't come July 1st, it will not be long delayed.

The good folks of Manchester want water-works.

An ex-Kentuckian, residing at Rome, Ga., swallowed a fatal dose of carbolic acid by mistake.

The excursion from Lexington to see Tom Smith hanged today at Jackson is off. The Sheriff wouldn't fix the execution to suit the railroad time table.

The little two and a half-year-old of Curran Crouch at Owingsville, finding a bottle of laudanum in a wardrobe, drank the stuff and died in a few hours, despite the efforts of the physicians who were summoned.

Notice.

On and after July 1st the receipts for city taxes will be in my hands for collection.

JAMES W. FITZGERALD, City Treasurer.

TO MAKE BLOOMERS UNLAWFUL.

Request of the Y. M. C. A. of San Francisco.

The Young Men's Christian Association of San Francisco has sent the following petition to the City Board of Supervisors: "We the undersigned citizens of the city and county, pray to the honorable Board of Supervisors to enact and enforce that it be unlawful for ladies to wear bloomers or knickerbockers, or any attire unbecoming the fair sex. We consider the above wearing apparel—and we believe all good Christians will uphold us in our theory—a perpetual menace to the good morals of the city. We have consulted eminent physicians and they all agree that it is unhealthy for ladies to ride bicycles. Furthermore, we have great compassion for the fair sex. Hoping our prayer will be received and special attention be given by your honorable body," etc.

ONE OF UNCLE SAM'S FINEST.

A Postoffice in Eastern Kentucky That is a Daisy.

Postoffice Inspector George M. Fleming has returned from a six weeks' trip spent among the mountaineers of Eastern Kentucky with a big store of interesting reminiscences of his trip.

He tells of the Postoffice at Coon, Ky., on Coon Creek, which is probably without a parallel anywhere.

It is in a store where the only merchandise sold is guns, locks, coffin screws, tombstones, and ready-made epitaphs, the latter with a blank space for the name of the deceased. The Postmaster, he says, carries on a thriving business in these commodities.

Inspector Fleming says that the region is one of the richest coal districts in the country, but the resources have never been tapped.

The reason for this is that there are no railroad facilities and no other means of shipping the coal when mined.

Owners of the land realize, however, that they have a very good chance of some day becoming wealthy, and the property is, consequently, held at a high figure, which will necessarily be advanced even higher as soon as the country, parts of which, it is said, have never even been explored, is opened up to commerce.

Dr. P. G. Smoot can be found at night at residence of John N. Thomas, Third st.
